Henri Abele is one of Champagne's oldest Houses founded in 1757. It was famously served onboard the Titanic which left Belfast on 2nd April 1912, and bottles of Henri Abele Champagne feature among the 7000 artefacts which have been recovered from the wreckage to date.

Penfolds Grange 1997

Barossa Valley, Australia

£600.00

A classic Grange, though slightly softer and more forward than the 1996. The saturated purple-coloured 1997 offers a gorgeously sweet nose of blackberry liqueur, cherries, camphor, chocolate, plums and mocha. Opulently-textured, extremely soft, layered and seductive, with Grange's tell-tale personality well-displayed, but in a seamless, seductive style. This is a superb Grange that can hold its own against the more heralded 1996.

(94 points Wine Advocate)

Chateau Leoville Las Cases 1996

St Julien, France

£475.00

Having previously rated it near perfect, I was apprehensive of a let-down about tasting the 1996 Leoville Las Cases once it had been bottled, but that concern was quickly dismissed once I put my nose in the glass. A profound Leoville Las Cases, it is one of the great modern day wines of Bordeaux. This wine's hallmark remains a sur-maturite (over-ripeness) of the Cabernet Sauvignon grape. Yet the wine has retained its intrinsic classicism, symmetry, and profound potential for complexity and elegance. The black/purple colour is followed by spectacular nose of cassis, cherry liqueur, pain grille, and minerals. It is powerful and rich on the attack, with beautifully integrated tannin, massive concentration, yet no hint of heaviness or disjointedness. As this wine sits in the glass it grows in structure and richness. It is remarkable, seamless, palate-staining and extraordinarily elegant wine – the quintessential St-Julien.

(98 Robert Parker Wine Advocate)

Chateau Pontet Canet 2000

Pauillac, France

£350.00

Tasted at the Pontet-Canet vertical, the 2000 is perhaps where things start getting interesting, as Alfred Tesseron's top-to-toe reconfiguration of the vineyard and vinification began to impact and ameliorate the wine. It has a lovely bouquet of blackberry and briary fruit, hints of black truffle developing, later damp earth. There is an intensity here, if not the complexity of the best millennial Pauillacs. The palate is medium-bodied with a mixture of red and black fruit, cedar and sous-bois percolating up through and rendering it a serious Pontet-Canet in keeping with the vintage. There is a subtle and yet insistent grip on the finish. It has always been a tannic wine, but these are now softening.

(92 Neal Martin - Wine Advocate)

Ridge Lytton Springs 2016

Sonoma, California

£165.00

Complex aromas of vanilla, raspberry and black pepper. Full bodied with firm acidity, focused blackberry and an elegant lingering finish.

Chateau Brane Cantenac 2005

Margeaux, France

£400.00

'A sexy style of wine from the Lurtons at Brane Cantenac, this wine has a stunning nose of forest floor, liquorice, blackcurrants, plums and spring flowers. Soft tannin, full-bodied opulence and beautifully textured, lush richness, make for a brilliant wine. In spite of its stunning forward fragrance and lushness, the colour still looks as if it is 3-4 years old, rather than a decade. This is a big time winner in 2005 and should drink well now and for the next 25+ years.

(Robert Parker - Wine Advocate)

Domaine de Cambes 2013

Cotes de Bourg, Bordeaux, France

£105.00

This younger brother of the famous Roc de Cambes boasts a bouquet in which fruity notes and gentle spicy nuances combine. On the palate, it is appealing with a good balanced body and a finish full of freshness. A very accomplished wine.

Jim Barry 'The Armagh' Shiraz 2009 Clare Valley, Australia £395.00
Deep plum red with purple tints. It shows the hallmarks of low-yielding vines, with intense, tightly coiled aromas of cranberry, mulberry, milk chocolate, boysenberry and spearmint. It is bright, fresh and balanced with intense yet reserved characters of rosemary, sage, cinnamon, cedar and black pepper. On the palate this wine really shows its true colours with solid tannin structure playing an integral role in the overall picture. Flavours of redcurrants, black cherries and blueberries are in abundance, with an undercurrent of freshly turned earth and truffles in the background. The length of flavour and power in this wine, whilst still showing finesse and restraint, is what sets it at the zenith of red winemaking at Jim Barry Wines.

Tenuta San Guido Bolgheri Sassicaia 2011 Tuscany, Italy £395.00
The 2011 Bolgheri Sassicaia speaks to a broad, yet very distinct audience. I am absolutely charmed by this vintage. Soft cherry and blackberry confit emerge from the bouquet in thick, luscious waves. Leather, spice and tar play supporting roles. The wine offers a generous and expansive style. It also shows impressive balance and coherent inner integrity. This vintage certainly bears the hallmarks of a hot vintage, but it never feels overdone. It delivers volume, intensity and rich textures. This Sassicaia is a wine of enormous craftsmanship.

(94 + /100 Monica Lerner - Wine Advocate 04/17)

Joseph Phelps Insignia 2015 Napa Valley, California £550.00
The 2015 Insignia is blended of 90% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Petit Verdot, 2% Cabernet Franc and 1% Malbec aged for 24 months in 100% new French oak. Deep garnet-purple coloured, it opens with stunning black and red plums, cassis and mulberry scents with loads of redcurrant sparks and compelling wafts of lilacs, pencil shavings, black olives and tinted soil with a hint of bay leaves. Medium to full bodied, the palate explodes with red and blackcurrant fireworks plus some exciting mineral nuances coming through, framed by firm, grainy tannins and fantastic freshness, finishing very long and beautifully layered.

(98 Points, Lisa Perotti-Brown, RobertParker.com)

Frog's Leap Cabernet Sauvignon 2015 Rutherford, Napa Valley, California £210.00
78% Cabernet Sauvignon, 13% Merlot, 9% Cabernet Franc
The 2015 is a remarkable wine: rich, deep mocha aromas, superb balance, with very long and deep flavours. Finely balanced with the right amount of muscle, the firmly structured wine exudes currants and savory spice in a length silky finish.

Penfolds Bin 389 'Baby Grange' 2015 Barossa Valley, Australia £135.00
Vibrant blood-red with a staining dark core. On the nose, typical barrel-fermented characters of prune, fig, date and quince with a soy undertone. Apparent freshness with scents of chargrilled, Italian vegetables. Full bodied, complex and perfectly intertwined Cabernet and Shiraz, offering newly tanned leather and dark red berries. Vibrant, with a tangy freshness augmented by sculptured tannins, lively acidity, respectful oak and a well-balanced but lengthy finish.

(91 points Wine Advocate)

Sweet berry and currant on the nose and palate, with hints of mint. Full-bodied, with velvety tannins and a long finish. This is like Lynch from the 1980s. This is made from more Cabernet Sauvignon than the second wines of Lynch and shows more class.

(89-92 points James Suckling, Wine Spectator)

Chateau Poujeaux Moulis, France £110.00

Medium to deep garnet colour and delivers expressive blackberry preserves, prunes, sautéed herbs and fragrant earth notes with hints of tobacco and fallen leaves. ## MAGNUMS (1.5L)

Vina Tondonia Tinto Reserva, Bodegas R Lopez de Heredia Haro, Rioja Alta £275.00

Tondonia's extended ageing process results in a wine that is not about fruit but has so much complexity, so much character that it is impossible to put down. The excellent 2004 vintage has brought additional concentration and personality to the wine, which is still unbelievably fresh.

Classic notes of leather, cured meat and spice mingle with warm, macerated red fruits on the nose. The palate is mid-weight, but the true beauty of the 2004 lies in the luxurious mouth-feel and intense core of flavour in the wine.

This freshness, combined with the mouth-coating flavours, suggest that, although a joy to drink now, this is a wine that will hold for at least a decade more. It is, put simply, glorious, traditional, elegant Rioja.
